

Wolfpack Girls Bowling Tournament Updates

Wolfpack Sending Three Girls to Sectionals!!!

Girls Bowling Varsity (2/3)

The Wolfpack came out hot on Saturday posting their top three games of the season as a team with games of 734, 700 and 678 but it was not enough in the six game IHSA Regional to advance as a team. Advancing individually was Erin Converse who rolled her PR of 192 and totaled 919 pins. Also moving on to the IHSA Glenbard East Sectional is Caitlin Benson with 808 total pins and Maggie McKean with 772 total pins. This is the most girls advancing for the Wolfpack in several years.

Wolfpack Led by Converse at GCAC

Girls Bowling Varsity (1/27)

The Wolfpack swept the morning round over DePaul Prep but could not keep it going in the afternoon as they fell to 12th place in the GCAC Tournament. Erin Converse placed 10th as an individual with a 161 average in six games after rolling her PR of 186 in game three.

Wolfpack Grab 6th at GCAC Championship

Girls Bowling JV (1/27)

The Pack bowled their best three game series of the year in the morning session at the GCAC Championship and followed that up with a last frame strike by Amelia Prange to steal a game from Fenwick. Ignatius finished in 6th place for the day with Amelia Prange placing 10th overall averaging 121 while Brigid Ross average 111 for 12th place individually.
